

Assignment for Lesson 3: Translation of the 3 Texts

1. Abu Hurayrah reported that the people said to the messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, "O Messenger of Allah, shall we see our Lord on Judgement Day?", so the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "do you have difficulty in seeing the moon on a full moon night? They replied, "No, O Messenger of Allah." He said, "Do you have difficulty in seeing the sun without the clouds?" They said, "No, O Messenger of Allah." He said, "therefore you will see Him just like that. Allah will gather the people on Judgement Day, and [He] will say, "whoever worshipped something, let them follow what they worshipped".
2. "Worship amidst difficulty is equivalent to making hijrah to me."
3. Malik said, "every act of forgetfulness, which detracts (from anything in the prayer), [in order to make up for that] the prostration for the act of forgetfulness* comes before the Salaam. Likewise, every act of forgetfulness, which increases (anything in the prayer), the prostration for the act of forgetfulness* comes after the Salaam."

* The wording here (فَإِنَّ سُجُودَهُ), the pronoun suffix on سُجُودَهُ refers to "the act of forgetfulness" (سَهْوٍ) here, not the people performing it because the prostration is done to make up for the act of forgetfulness, which is, grammatically speaking, masculine.
